Decision No. 30/1 issued on 25 January 2021 on the extension of the period for the payment of tax and the submission of the annual declaration for the year 2020

Decision No. 30/1 of 25 January 2021 on the extension of the period for the payment of tax and the submission of the annual declaration for the year 2020 for persons subject to local tax on the basis of lump-sum profits and to enterprises excluded from income tax other than those that adopt the monetary system in their accounting.

Based on the Income Tax Law, the Tax Procedure Law and the General Mobilization Decision, the period for the payment of tax, the submission of the annual declaration and the submission of the statement of the economic right's holder for the year 2020, shall be extended to 1/3/2021 to income tax payers based on lump-sum taxation and to enterprises excluded from income tax other than those that adopt the monetary system in their accounting.